Mary, Sarita lead hosts' gold rush on final day

Guwahati, May 25: Six-time world champion MC Mary Kom and the seasoned L Sarita Devi spearheaded India's gold rush at the second India Open boxing tournament, which concluded on Friday. Asian Games gold medalist Amit Panghal thwarted a spirited challenge from giant killer Sachin Siwach with a well-calculated display to clinch the gold by a split 4-1 verdict in the highly-competitive 52kg men's category.

Overall, India swept the medals in four men's categories (52kg, 81kg, 91kg and +91kg) and three in women's (51kg, 57kg and 75kg) to conclude their campaign with 12 of the 18 gold medals up for grabs.

India, who had bagged six golds in the inaugural edition in New Delhi last year, thus doubled their gold count in the continental meet that witnessed a depleted field with a no-show from Uzbekistan.

World championship medalist Sarita Devi won her first gold in three years beating Simranjit Kaur 3-2 by virtue of a split decision.

Making her debut in 60kg category, Simranjit, a World Championship bronze medalist and Asian Championship silver medalist, impressed in the first round with some telling blows.

But Sarita Devi did not lose ground and fought back with a counter-attacking display as she celebrated the win looking upwards, dedicating the gold to her mother Laishram Khomthongbi,

"This gold belongs to my mother. I lost my dad early and my mother made me the boxer that I'm now. This gold has come after a long time. I'm missing her very much at this moment," Sarita got emotional as she spoke about her mother, who died after suffering from cancer.

Sarita Devi, who won a bronze at the Asian Championship earlier this year en route to her eighth medal in the continental meet, last won a gold at the 2016 South Asian Games in Shillong.

Olympic bronze medalist Mary Kom saw off a valiant fight by former national champion Vanlal Duati of Mizoram to emerge winner by unanimous decision. Nikhat Zareen and Jyoti took the bronze medals for an all-Indian finish in the podium.

Home favourite and world championship bronze medalist Shiva Thapa avenged his last year's semifinal defeat to defending champion Manish Kaushik to grab the 60kg gold in front of a boisterous crowd at the Karmabir Nabin Chandra Bordoloi Indoor Stadium. Thapa began with a tight vigil and was seen in his aggressive best from second round onwards en route to get an unanimous verdict from the five judges.

Having moved to the new weight earlier this year, Panghal, who had won the Asiad gold in 49kg, had a tough first round with the former world youth champion Siwach using his height advantage to full credit.

Taller by six inches, Siwach who ousted world championship bronze medalist Rogan Ladon and Commonwealth Games champion Gaurav Solanki in the previous rounds, was full of energy and confidence.

To negate this, Panghal opted the waiting game strategy, ducking most of his opponent's punches and staying out of his range. National champion P L Prasad and Commonwealth Games gold medallist Solanki took the bronze in the 52kg category with another India clean sweep.

India had a setback in the 64kg, when national champion Rohit Tokas suffered a knee twist in the first round and forfeited the bout to former Olympian Richamo Colin, a bronze medalist at the New Delhi 2010 Commonwealth Games.

Tokas, who won a bronze at the Makran Cup earlier this year, thus had to settle for the silver, bettering his bronze medal feat at the last edition of India Open.

India also could not add their gold count in the men's 75kg final where Ashish Kumar pulled out against Filipino Eumir Felix Delos Santos.

The Asian Championship silver medalist suffered a forehead injury in his semifinal win against Aphisit Khankhokkruea of Thailand on Thursday.

Afghanistan stun Pakistan in World Cup warm-up

Bristol, May 25: Afghanistan rode on an unbeaten knock of 74 runs by Hashmatullah Shahidi to pull off a three-wicket victory over Pakistan in a last-over thrilling World Cup warm-up match at County Ground, Bristol, on Friday.

After opting to bat, Pakistan managed to post 262 runs before being bowled out in 47.5 overs. Babar Azam top-scored for Pakistan with 112 runs off 108 ball, including 10 boundaries and two sixes.

Apart from Imam-ul-Haq's 32 off 35 balls and Shoaib Malik's 59-ball 44, no other Pakistani batsman managed to impress much with the willow.

Mohammad Nabi led Afghanistan's bowling attack with three crucial scalps, while Dawlat Zadran and Rashid Khan joined the party with two wickets each.

Chasing a competitive target, Afghanistan looked confident since the start of the innings. Even though wicket-keeper batsman Mohammad Shahzad was retired hurt on 23 runs, other opener Hazratullah Zazai scored a quickfire 28-ball 49 to put Afghanistan in driver's seat.

However, Zazai was dismissed by Shadab Khan in the 12th over to disrupt Afghanistan's momentum in chase. Hashmatullah Shahidi capitalised on a brilliant start with the help of Rahmat Shah (32) and Mohammad Nabi (34).

Shahidi smashed 74 runs off 102 ball, including seven boundaries and a winning run that he scored off the fourth ball of the final over by Wahab Riaz (3/46).

South Africa beat Sri Lanka

Skipper Faf du Plessis smashed his way to 88

while Andile Phehlukwayo produce an all-round effort as South Africa outplayed Sri Lanka by 87 runs in an ICC World Cup warm-up encounter here Friday.

Batting first, South Africa put up a par score of 338 for seven, riding on Du Plessis's 88 off 69 balls with four sixes and seven fours. Sri Lanka were all out for 251 in 42.3 overs with Phehlukwayo taking 4 for 36 in 7 overs.

When the Proteas batted, Du Plessis was well supported by opener Hashim Amla, who scored 65 off 61 balls along with contributions from Hendrik van der Dussen (40 off 41 balls), Phehlukwayo (35 off 34 balls), Chris Morris (26 off 13 balls).

With Lasith Malinga being rested, the new ball bowlers Suranga Lakmal (2/63) and Nuwan Pradeep (2/77) went for runs with the only respectable figures coming from Isuru Udana (1/42 in 10 overs).

Sri Lanka fought till skipper Dimuth Karunaratne (87 off 92 balls) and former skipper Angelo Mathews (64 off 66 balls) were at the crease adding 98 for the fourth wicket.

Once Karunaratne was dismissed, the Sri Lankan wickets fell in a heap with last five wickets falling for only 31 runs.

South Africa used all their bowling options save Dale Steyn with Lungi Ngidi (2/12 in 6 overs) bowling one spell and Phehlukwayo running through the middle and lower-order.

Brief Scores: South Africa 338/7 (Faf du Plessis 88 off 69 balls, Hashim Amla 65 off 61 balls, Andile Phehlukwayo 35 off 34 balls) Sri Lanka 251 in 42.3 overs (Dimuth Karunaratne 87 off 92 balls, Angelo Mathews 64 off 66 balls).

of the association told reporters here Friday. The matches would be played on league-cum-knockout basis and the semi-finals and finals are scheduled for May 31 and June 1 respectively, he said.

There would be Rs 1.85-lakh prize money and Cup for men and Rs one lakh and trophy for women.

English and Our Politicians..!

How our politicians love to say they hate English, yet if you see where their children go, it is to the best English schools. A few days ago I was having a chat with my accountant, a man who has worked for me for nigh over twenty-five years.

"How's the family?" I asked him. "Doing well sir, though my son can't get a job!"

"Tell him to meet me," I told him, "I'll see what I can do!"

"I'll come with him," said my accountant.

"Why?" I asked, "Doesn't he know how to travel alone?"

"Yes sir," said my accountant, "But he can't speak English!"

I was shocked. I remembered the number of times many years ago, when his son was a toddler, encouraging the father to put his son into a good English school, even offering to compensate some cost of the fees, but he had never come back to me.

"Why didn't you listen to me?" I asked him, a little abruptly.

"I listened to my political leader!" said the man simply.

There are many who can't figure out why our politicians are not to keen on children getting the best education; the reason is simple; the more you are educated the more you will be able to discern and decipher and question their lies and untruths. Secondly keeping their voters in a state of illiteracy makes the voter dependent on the leader, for everything. Yet they send their own children to the best of schools.

In the colony I live in, the poor man who operates the water-pump has sent all three of his children to English schools. I was thrilled to discover that all three come within the first three ranks in all their exams.

And the pump operator cannot sign his name.

He came home this morning; he wanted two hundred rupees from me, for tying the dogs up everyday. I smiled as I gave him the small amount. I knew these small sums would be collected from different households and would go towards uniforms and books and other school needs.

He brought his son home the other day and smiled from ear to ear as the little fellow talked confidently to me in excellent English. I then spoke to his daughters and found they were as proficient as their brother.

The politician obviously hadn't got to him.

My cook has sent her daughter to medical school. My driver has started asking me about the best coaching class for his son. A painter who worked for me now has his two daughters working in a banking Call Center. These children will lift their families up, and out of poverty just because they were allowed to study English whereas my accountant, poor fellow, listened to our political leaders..!

All-India Junior Badminton tournament

Top seed Gayatri struggles, 3rd seed Malvika eases into quarters

Chennai, May 25:

Top seed P Gayatri Gopichand of Telangana faced her first tough fight in the Microplex Global and Yonex Sunrise All-India Junior Ranking Badminton Tournament, before prevailing 2-0 and entering the quarterfinals here on Friday night.

The daughter of India coach Pullela Gopichand was stretched all the way by the unseeded Khushi Gupta of Delhi in the Under-19 Girls Singles clash for a place in the Last 8. It took the 16-year-old's cool temperament and superior skill to eke out a 22-20 win in the first game. The second game was equally close with Khushi determined to battle for every fight. But in the end Gayatri lived up to her ranking, closing it at 21-16.

No. 3 seed Malvika Bansod of Airports Authority of India and Chennai's Akshaya Arumugam had comparatively easier rounds, getting the better of No. 12 seed Aditi Bhatt of Uttarakhand and Riya Kunjir of Maharashtra. Malvika won 21-19 21-11 while an impressive Akshaya romped home with a 21-12, 21-11 victory.

Earlier in the day, Gayatri barely stretched herself to beat Prerana Alvekar of Maharashtra 21-11 21-13. Malvika Bansod, however, struggled against unseeded Tanya Hemanth (Karnataka), losing the second game 15-21. The final game too was tight but she survived the scare for a 21-10 15-21 21-18 win.

Unnati Bisht (No. 4, UTR) and Samiya Imad Farooqui (No. 5, TS) joined the duo by taming Likhita Srivastava of Delhi 21-16 21-8 and Treesa Jolly of Kerala 21-16 21-10.

Amolika Singh (No. 6, Uttar Pradesh) and Tasnim Mir (No. 13, Gujarat) were the only two seeds in girls' category to tumble out of the competition. They lost to Aadya Variyath of Kerala 22-20 16-21 21-16 and Himanshi Rawat of Uttarakhand 22-20 7-21 21-15.

No. 2 seed Maisnam Meiraba of Manipur drove the top seeds in the Under-19 Boys Singles, carrying as many as 11 more into the next round. Maisnam beat Bharat Raghav of Haryana (21-8 23-21) to set up a clash with Rohan Gurbani (Maharashtra) who took down Karan Negi (HP) 21-13 21-7.

Other seeds who progressed include Sai Charan Koya (No. 3, AP), Sathish Kumar K. (4, TN), Aakash Yadav (No. 5, Delhi), Tharun M. (6, Telangana), Siddhanth Gupta (No. 10, TN) and Pranav Rao Gandham (No. 16, Telangana).
